Royal Swedish Academy of Fine Arts, Stockholm, 22-25 February 2007

PRESS RELEASE

16 November 2006

Morgan Stanley to sponsor MARKET

MARKET and Morgan Stanley are pleased to announce their partnership for MARKET 2007. MARKET, the Nordic fair for contemporary art, will take place at the Royal Swedish Academy of Fine Arts in central Stockholm from 22-25 February 2007.

MARKET is pleased to present Morgan Stanley as its main sponsor. "We are proud that Morgan Stanley has chosen to support MARKET. A strong international partner from the financial services sector further strengthens MARKET's high-quality profile and allows us to continue developing the MARKET concept," says fair director Julie Axelsson.

Morgan Stanley is an active supporter of the visual and performing arts internationally. "MARKET provides an exceptional opportunity to spotlight contemporary Nordic art, with 30 leading galleries from this region. We are glad to support this event and hope that Morgan Stanley's clients, employees and others will enjoy the experience," says Per Hillström, Managing Director and Nordic Country Head of Morgan Stanley.

Morgan Stanley is a leading financial services firm providing investment banking, securities, investment management, wealth management and credit services. The firm has more than 600 offices in 30 countries and clients include corporations, governments, institutions and individuals. Morgan Stanley serves the Nordic region from Stockholm and London.

MARKET took place for the first time in February of this year at the initiative of a group of gallerists aiming to create an art fair of international class in Stockholm. The fair now plans to be an annual event.
